

June 7, 2011

Investigation Items of the Accident at the Fukushima Nuclear Power Stations of Tokyo Electric Power Company (draft)

1. Fact-finding investigation of the background of the accident

- ☐ Public awareness of the nuclear power generation and its changes
- ☐ History of nuclear power technology
- ☐ Situation at the Fukushima Nuclear Power Stations
- ☐ Organizational structure of Tokyo Electric Power Company's nuclear power stations and its evaluations
- ☐ Fundamental concepts of nuclear power safety
- ☐ Overview of the Japanese nuclear administrations
- ☐ Other background information

2. Fact-finding investigation of the accident at the Fukushima Nuclear Power Stations

- ☐ What happened?
 - What happened during the accident
 - The impact on the neighboring areas
 - How affected residents have evacuated
 - How workers have been exposed to radiation
- ☐ Why all this happened?
 - Anti-earthquake and anti-tsunami measures prior to the accident
 - Post-disaster measures
 - Organizational structure for post-disaster measures and its process
- ☐ Impact on people, including local residents and on Japan's economy
 - Defining safety standards on radiation levels
 - Measures on evacuation and other issues
 - Measures to reduce or prevent radiation exposure through contaminated food, water, air, soil, etc.
 - Other impacts on people's lives and Japan's economy
- ☐ Provision of information to the general public in Japan and overseas, and cooperation with the international community
 - How information was disclosed
 - Transmission of information overseas
 - Information exchange and cooperation with the IAEA and foreign governments
- ☐ Other matters and situations relating to the accident