Description: Investment and Cross-Border Trade in Services

1. The United States reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure relating to the provision of maritime transportation services and the operation of U.S.-flagged vessels, including the following:
 - (a) requirements for investment in, ownership and control of, and operation of vessels and other marine structures, including drill rigs, in maritime cabotage services, including maritime cabotage services performed in the domestic offshore trades, the coastwise trades, U.S. territorial waters, waters above the continental shelf, and in the inland waterways;
 - (b) requirements for investment in, ownership and control of, and operation of U.S.-flagged vessels in foreign trades;
 - (c) requirements for investment in, ownership or control of, and operation of vessels engaged in fishing and related activities in U.S. territorial waters and the Exclusive Economic Zone;
 - (d) requirements related to documenting a vessel under the U.S. flag;
 - (e) promotional programmes, including tax benefits, available for shipowners, operators, and vessels meeting certain requirements;
 - (f) certification, licensing and citizenship requirements for crew members on U.S.-flagged vessels;

- (g) manning requirements for U.S.-flagged vessels;
 - (h) all matters under the jurisdiction of the Federal Maritime Commission;
 - (i) negotiation and implementation of bilateral and other international maritime agreements and understandings;
 - (j) limitations on longshore work performed by crew members;
 - (k) tonnage duties and light money assessments for entering U.S. waters; and
 - (l) certification, licensing and citizenship requirements for pilots performing pilotage services in U.S. territorial waters.
2. The following activities are not included in this entry. However, the treatment provided to a Party in (b) is conditional upon obtaining comparable market access in these sectors from that Party:
- (a) vessel construction and repair; and
 - (b) landside aspects of port activities, including operation and maintenance of docks; loading and unloading of vessels directly to or from land; marine cargo handling; operation and maintenance of piers; ship cleaning; stevedoring; transfer of cargo between vessels and trucks, trains, pipelines and wharves; waterfront terminal operations; boat cleaning; canal operation; dismantling of vessels; operation of marine railways for drydocking; marine surveyors, except cargo; marine wrecking of vessels for scrap; and ship classification societies.

² For transparency purposes, individual U.S. institutions maintain autonomy in admission policies, in setting tuition rates, and in the development of curricula or course content. Educational and training entities must comply with requirements of the jurisdiction in which the facility is established. In some jurisdictions, accreditation of institutions or programmes may be required. Institutions maintain autonomy in selecting the jurisdiction in which they will operate, and institutions and programmes maintain autonomy in choosing to meet standards set by accrediting organisations as well as to continue accredited status. Accrediting organisations maintain autonomy in setting accreditation standards. Tuition rates vary for in-state and out-of-state residents. Additionally, admissions policies include considerations of equal opportunity for students (regardless of race, ethnicity or gender), as permitted by domestic law, as well as recognition by regional, national or specialty organisations; and required standards must be met to obtain and maintain accreditation.
